[redacted] Received a call from Representative Roman C. Pucinski (D., Ill.), concerning a project to supply portable radios to people in the Far East which was given coverage by Drew Pearson in his column a few weeks ago. In another context, Representative Pucinski and others have been working on this concept some two or three years and would like to discuss some of the problems with the manufacturers of the radios if this is possible. He is delighted with the fact that the referred project is already under way. He also requested, if possible that I be back in touch with him by Monday afternoon.
